CRESCENT SKI COUNCIL SPRING CONVENTION

KINGSTON PLANTATION, MYRTLE BEACH, SC

Thursday-Sunday, April 23-26 #SK0904

Start the spring with a trip to Myrtle Beach and the Crescent Ski Council Spring Convention. This is not just an event for skiers. This is a fun weekend at the beach at one of the nicest resorts in Myrtle Beach — Kingston Plantation. It is more like a Hilton Head resort than what you normally think of at Myrtle Beach. There will be around 200 people attending from the 23 clubs. It will be a great opportunity to meet members from other ski clubs. If you enjoyed the End of Summer event, you will definitely enjoy this event.

Last year RSOC actually won the most Beach Olympics events but lost the overall title because the number of members participating also counts toward the title. Join in on the fun this year and let's bring the Beach Olympics title back to Raleigh this year.

- ▶ On Thursday evening there will be an Early Bird reception for the people wanting an early start to this long weekend at the beach.
- ▶ On Friday morning there will be a Golf Tournament and a Tennis Tournament with prizes for the top winners.
- ▶ On Friday night there will be the ski trade show showcasing many of the top resorts in the US and Canada with representatives in attendance. You will be able to talk to the reps and learn more about their resorts and places you might want to ski.
- ▶ A DJ party and dance will follow the trade show.
- ▶ On Saturday morning there will be some business sessions, but only the club reps need to attend.
- ▶ On Saturday afternoon there will be the famous and fun Beach Olympics. It has been a while since RSOC has Beach Olympics. It has been awhile since RSOC has had enough people attending to field a team. Asheville has won almost every event for the last two years. Before that, Charleston, SC had a long win streak. Let's try to field a team this year and be competitive.
- ▶ On Saturday night there will be a theme party (theme to be determined.) with prizes for the best costume. There will also be door prizes provided by the ski resorts, tour operators, and other sponsors.

There will be plenty of free time to enjoy the beach and the beautiful facilities at Kingston Plantation. Also, you are very near one of the outlet malls and just a short drive from Barefoot Landing and many restaurants.

Mark your calendar for this fun event and start your beach season early!

ART IN THE EVENING AND MOVIE NIGHT AT NORTH CAROLINA
MUSEUM OF ART
Friday, May 1 #LE0912

Every Friday, from 6:00-8:00 p.m., the North Carolina Museum of Art offers live music, a selection of fine wine and microbrews, and guided tours. We'll be mixing it up with special themes, curator's choice tours, and family nights. You may want to arrive early enough to enjoy the entertainment before the movie and to purchase your ticket early because movies do sell out!

Thereafter, join us for the film, The Heart is a Lonely Hunter, described as: A deaf-mute rents a room in the home of a sensitive teenage girl, and through her becomes enmeshed in a community of damaged souls, including an alcoholic and a black doctor struggling both with racism and estrangement from his daughter. Alan Arkin and Sondra Locke (in her film debut, with her days as Clint Eastwood's heroine still in her future) both received Oscar nominations. (1968) Directed by Robert Ellis Miller. Also starring Stacy Keach.

Novelist Jill Mc Corkle (July 7th, Carolina Moon) will introduce this moving, and almost forgotten adaptation of Carson McCullers's novel.

And afterwards, we can go to Edwards Mill Bar & Grill to kick back even more!

Location: North Carolina Museum of Art, 2110 Blue Ridge Road, Raleigh. Film screened in the Museum Auditorium.

Meeting time: 6:00 p.m. (for Art in the Evening — music, wine/microbrews, tours)

RSOC HOMECOMING

Saturday, May 16 #LE0914

Last year when we held our first RSOC Homecoming we certainly enjoyed visiting with so many of the great folks we've gotten to know over the years through RSOC. It was so wonderful to have a chance to reestablish those old friendships. So we're planning another party to bring together as many of our current and former RSOC members as possible at the RSOC Homecoming!

We'll gather at the home of Frank and Shirley Clemmensen in Durham County and get back in touch with long-time RSOC friends. You can join in on playing lawn games, including bocce, croquet, badminton, and horseshoes; go fishin' in the pond (catch 'n release); or just relax and visit with long-time friends. There'll be plenty of activities for the kids, too!

Throughout the afternoon, we'll have soft drinks and snacks available, and then serve hot dogs with all the fixings around 4:30. Please bring a dish to share to round out the meal. BYOB anything other than soft drinks. Please also bring a lawn chair.

The RSOC Board of Directors has pulled up its database going back the last several years; and with this, we're spreading the word to as many past RSOC members as possible. But, you can help, too — let anyone you know who'd once been a member of RSOC that they're also invited. And, if they (or you) have children, bring them along — everyone's welcome!

A nominal fee to cover expenses does not need to be paid in advance, and will be collected at the door. However, please RSVP in advance so we can plan to have enough dogs and drinks for everyone.

Location: Home of Frank and Shirley Clemmensen, 5714 Cheek Road, Durham 27704

Start time: 2:00 p.m.

End time: 8:00 p.m.

Event fee: $5.00 adults; free for children 12 and under. Fee will be paid at the door; however, please RSVP by May 13 to Shirley Clemmensen, 919/683-5552, frank-clem@juno.com

Maximum attendees: 250

Coordinators: RSOC Board of Directors

Meetup.com For Dummies

For those RSOCers who may have heard about Meetup.com but are a bit hesitant, here is a step-by-step guide on how to enjoy everything Meetup.com has to offer in conjunction with <http://www.raleighskiandoutingclub.org/>.

Go to <http://www.meetup.com/>. On the right side, "Where are you?" type in your zip code, Enter. "Meetups near Raleigh, NC" will appear on the next page. Under the left tab, "Top Interests", click "Recreation". Scroll down to "Raleigh Ski and Outing Club", click on the hyperlink and you will be on the <http://adventurers.meetup.com/72/?gj=sj5> homepage.

At that point if you are not already a Meetup.com member, it will ask you to "Join us!"; so, enter in your name, e-mail, and password, and you can now join all of your RSOC friends online and invite people you know to harness the power and excitement of Meetup.com. If you have questions, please contact me, Dwen Andrews-Cita, at: dwencita@nc.rr.com, or 919/624-0762.

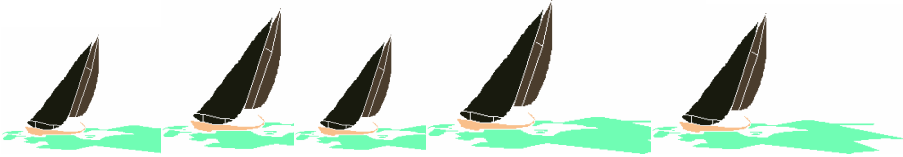

Would you like to host a RSOC activity on the new RSOC meetup.com homepage? Click on "<http://adventurers.meetup.com/72/?gj=sj3>"; create your profile; and please let us know what activity you would like to post and/or coordinate.

Hiking and racing events would be great ways to introduce thousands of Triangle meetup.com participants to RSOC! We would love some photos of racing, skiing, camping, hiking or any other RSOC activities to be placed on the meetup.com homepage; so, feel free to send them to dwencita@nc.rr.com so we can post them online. We are looking forward to seeing you all online shortly!

PHOTOS NEEDED FOR WEB SITE

We are updating the RSOC website and need your help! The photo history is becoming outdated and we would like to show pictures of more recent trips and events. If you are going on any FUN trip with RSOC, take some pictures. If you have a digital camera or scanner, you can send the pictures by email. Photo size should be kept to around 50K. Please do not transmit large file (1Mg and up). If you have a lot of photos for the web site, please send on a CD. If you have a regular camera and cannot copy the pictures, give them to me at the meeting. I will get them back to you at the next event or next meeting.

Thanks — Jim Bennett at jben@mindspring.com.

CREW CLINIC 2009

Friday – Sunday, June 5-7 #BT0901

NEWSFLASH - Crew Clinic back by popular demand! Thanks to all who completed our survey and provided all of the positive feedback, which helped to confirm that Crew Clinic must go on! This annual trip to scenic Oriental North Carolina, with our long-time friends from the Neuse Sailing Association, will provide you with an opportunity to learn some basic sailing skills, or to just kick back and relax as a guest aboard a medium to large sailboat.

Plan to arrive in Oriental (~3 hour drive from Raleigh) on Friday afternoon if at all possible. Friday night will kick off with registration and a Welcome Party at the Tiki Bar. The party will feature live music from Dave Collins (good, local one-man band that we heard a few years back), along with a yet to be finalized ice-breaker type social activity (cash bar). Saturday morning, you'll meet your Captain at the Tiki Bar after breakfast and head to your boat.

We'll have a new option for 2009 - for those who may prefer the rumble of diesels to the music of the wind, we expect to have one or more power boats available (larger cabin-cruiser type, not ski boats). Sailing / Boating on Saturday (weather permitting) with the traditional group raft-up for lunch (provide your own food & beverage). On Saturday night, we'll walk down to the Yacht Club for dinner (included in price / menu TBD). After dinner, hang out on the deck at the Yacht Club and dance to the music of The Soul Shakers. On Sunday, we'll start the day off with our new tradition - a Bloody Mary party on the deck, then head to the boats for a fun race around the marks before we head home to Raleigh. The race will be from ~11 a.m. to 2 p.m to get you back home in plenty of time to get ready for Monday.

A pre-trip party (date and location to be announced) will be held to choose boats, distribute information, arrange carpools, etc. Note that the trip price does not include lodging. Rooms have been blocked at the Oriental Marina (one and two bedroom condos with kitchenette). Please call them soon to reserve your choice of room as they will be released to the general public several weeks prior to the trip. The Marina is offering a 10% discount if booked prior to May 1 – be sure to mention that you're coming for Crew Clinic to get the reduced rate. Finally, if you've not been to Crew Clinic in prior years, be sure to come to the May RSOC meeting for a short presentation and to see what you've been missing!

Location: Oriental, North Carolina
Start time: Friday evening, June 5
End time: Sunday afternoon, June 7

Cost: $100 (member or non-member; cost does not include lodging). To confirm your space, mail checks made out to RSOC to: Dave Sniffin 103 Twilight Ct.
